Payable to: The City of Paris

License Fee: $ 75.00

Application must be received 10 business days prior to start date.

The fee for an itinerant merchant's permit is $75.00, the permit shall entitle the itinerant merchant to transact such business within city limits for and during three (3) dates so specified. No transient merchant's permit shall extend beyond the close of the calendar year in which it was obtained. This license allows transient merchants to sell their goods and merchandise.

If you have a current paid annual business license, an itinerant merchant license/vendor permit is not required. Participation in special events and or festivals, an itinerant merchant license/vendor permit is not required if the event has obtained proper permitting.

Should an itinerant merchant desire to conduct business within the city during any subsequent calendar year, it must renew the transient merchant's permit for that calendar year. The fee for the transient merchant's permit shall be in lieu of the annual net profits, occupational license tax imposed in ordinance § 60.003.

"Itinerant Merchant" Any person, whether as owner, agent, or consignee, who engages in a temporary business selling goods, wares, or merchandise within the city limits of Paris as a stationary vendor on private or public property.
